

Observing Engagement

In which activities does my child currently engage with me?

- Blocks/ legos
- Cars and trains
- Playdoh
- Songs and social games
- Puzzles
- Books
- Art materials
- Pretend play routines
- Games with rules
- Outdoor play
- Sensory play (balloons, bubbles, sand, water)
- Other:

What behaviors let me know he is engaged with me?

- Stays in proximity when I join
- Looks at me
- Smiles at me
- Gives and takes pieces
- Imitates my actions
- Lets me help him
- Other:

VANDERBILT KENNEDY CENTER

TREATMENT & RESEARCH INSTITUTE FOR AUTISM SPECTRUM DISORDERS

In which routines does my child currently engage with me?

- Bath
- Snack and mealtime
- Hand washing
- Brushing teeth
- Getting dressed
- Other:

What behaviors let me know he is engaged with me?

- Stays in proximity without help
- Looks at me
- Smiles at me
- Makes choices when offered
- Tries to complete steps in the routine
- Lets me help him
- Other:

VANDERBILT KENNEDY CENTER

TREATMENT & RESEARCH INSTITUTE FOR AUTISM SPECTRUM DISORDERS