

SENSE Theatre, the Vanderbilt Kennedy Center, and the University School of Nashville (USN) invite you to

The Year of the Ladybug

By Blythe Corbett

Everything you need to know about life,
you can find in the garden.

Written by Blythe Corbett • Directed by Avery Sweet

SENSE Theatre's children with autism spectrum disorder share the stage with Nashville Community Theatre Actors.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 23, 7 P.M.

Free admission, seating limited. RSVP at vkc.vumc.org/events/6347.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 24, 7 P.M.

Free admission, seating limited. RSVP at vkc.vumc.org/events/6348.

Location: University School of Nashville Auditorium
2000 Edgehill Ave., Nashville, TN 37212

Research for the program funded by The National Institute of Mental Health and the Vanderbilt Kennedy Center.

www.sensetheatre.com

SENSE Theatre® – A Stage of Hope For Children With Autism – is a unique intervention research program designed to improve the social and emotional functioning of children with autism and related neurodevelopmental disorders. The intervention research is supported by the National Institute of Mental Health. SENSE Theatre® is a non-profit 501(c)(3) organization.