

Who:

Study opportunity for infants (3-12 months) and a parent/caregiver.

What:

Families attend at least one study visit at Vanderbilt. Families will participate in a play session including singing/music, story time and/or toy play. Caregivers complete surveys about their child.

Why:

Caregivers will share a new and fun experience with their child and help us learn about how caregivers and children sing and play together. Families are compensated for their time and participation.
