

Nashville
Symphony

I'm going to a Nashville Symphony concert!

A Social Story

NSO: A Social Story

When I arrive...

We might get
our tickets at
the box office

I will be prepared for a
crowded lobby.

NSO: A Social Story

When I arrive...

There might
be activities
for me to do
if I want.

I can even try playing some instruments.

If it gets too loud...

I can ask to
go to a quiet
space.

I can also ask
to go to a bathroom if I
need to go.

When I am ready to find my seat...

An usher will help me get to my seat.

I will be sure to have my ticket ready!

When I enter the hall, it might be a little darker. This is okay.

When the concert begins...

The concertmaster will arrive to help the orchestra tune their instruments.

Then the conductor will arrive!

When the conductor arrives...

There will be
lots of clapping
and cheering!

I can join in on the clapping, too. When
the clapping is finished,
I will try to be quiet
and respectful during
the show.

When the orchestra begins to play...

There may be loud
moments!

There may also
be some quiet
moments.

If it gets too loud...

I can ask to
go to a quiet
space.

I can also ask
to go to a
bathroom if I
need to go.

During the concert...

A guest artist might sing or play an instrument with the orchestra.

Or the orchestra might play by itself.

When the conductor puts his or her arms down and turns around...

It's time to applaud! If I liked it, I can show the Symphony how much I enjoyed their music!

As I get ready to leave...

Everyone
will be heading to the exit.

I will make sure to be respectful and
take turns as
I leave.

The Symphony hopes I enjoy the concert!
